

POLARIS QUALITY POLICY

We are committed to being a customer-centric company, delivering innovative, safe, high-quality vehicles, products, and services that fuel the passion of our customers and enrich their lives.

We deliver on this commitment by:

Continually assessing and enhancing customers' total experience

Improving processes and technologies that create our products and services

Complying with applicable safety and quality standards, specifications, and regulations

Fostering a culture that encourages all employees to advance safety and quality

Honoring this commitment is imperative throughout Polaris' entire organization; including our suppliers, dealers, and service providers, and is reinforced by our Polaris Quality Operating System.
